Sir,

Subscriptions are being raised in this State with a view to commemorate the memory of the late Queen-Empress by establishing Agricultural Banks in Her Majesty's name. The Working Committee have got in hand sufficient funds to make a beginning towards the object, but it is thought advisable to gain by the experience of those who have already gone into the field, so as at least to avoid difficulties at the outset. The Committee learn that banks in some form have been established in the Mysore State to help the poor agriculturists. I, therefore, request that your Honour would be pleased to oblige the Committee by supplying it with all the literature on the subject published in the shape of rules & regulations, reports & resolutions on the same. The Committee would gladly pay for such publications as are put for sale.

I am to add that the Committee would be ~~pleased~~ placed under great obligations if your Honour would be pleased to make any practical suggestions regarding the subject which your experience may have led you to
